NO LEGAL HELP AT KOREAN TRIAL

Rev. Mowry, Sentenced to Jail for Complicity in Scheme to Obtain Korean Freedom, Is Innocent.

TOKIO, June 27. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Rev. E. M. Mowry, of Mansfield, O., an American Presbyterian missionary, had no lawyer to represent him in the court of Pyong Yang when he was convicted recently and sentenced to six months penal servitude for abetting Korean agitators in the independence movement. The trial was held after one day's notice to the accused and neither he nor his friends who were in court watching but taking no part in the case were notified until after the trial that they could have asked for and obtained a postponement.

These facts are stated by the Rev. Samuel A. Moffett, who has charge of the American Presbyterian mission at Pyong Yang. The Rev. Mr. Moffett has called to the attention of the Japanese authorities at Pyong Yang and forwarded a statement of the facts to the American consul at Seoul.

The Rev. Mr. Moffett attended the hearing in the case of the Rev. Mr. Mowry before the district court and made a detailed report of the proceedings in which he stated that he called upon Mr. Mowry, then under arrest, on April 10. A detective informed Mr. Moffett that Mr. Mowry probably would be sent to Seoul but on April 14, both Mr. Mowry and Mr. Moffett were notified that Mr. Mowry would be put on trial the next morning.

The Rev. Mr. Moffett's transcription of the evidence shows that the Rev. Mr. Mowry told the court that he was a teacher of the Union Christian college and principal of both the boys' and girls' grammar schools at Pyong Yang and that he had taught there since 1911. He said that he had advised to his house five Korean students for two days in March after the beginning of the independence movement. One of these was a secretary for six years and was so engaged until he was arrested by the Japanese.

The missionary had given him money for school expenses for five years. The Rev. Mr. Mowry told the court that he had heard that the Christians and students had held an independence meeting at the boys' grammar school, that he had nothing whatever to do with it but heard they had read a declaration of independence, raised the Korean flag and sang the Korean national anthem. The missionary declared that he had heard that the Christians and students had held an independence meeting at the boys' grammar school, that he had nothing whatever to do with it but heard they had read a declaration of independence, raised the Korean flag and sang the Korean national anthem.

"Would you not think that in coming to the house of the Westerner, something up?" asked the judge, through an interpreter.

"Koreans often sleep at my house and I could only guess at it in view of the times," replied the Rev. Mr. Mowry.

"Did you know that they secretly distributed announcements and that the police were hunting for them?" asked the judge.

"I knew the police were trying to arrest such men," Mr. Mowry said. "I did not know these boys had done anything. I guessed that the police were hunting for them. They said nothing to me about fleeing from the police. I did not hide them as fugitives. I made no effort to conceal them and I told them I could not do so."

Claimed Ignorance.

"If I had been informed that the police were trying to arrest them and had concealed them, it would have been wrong; but I did not know that they were criminals. If anyone had come to arrest them and I had concealed them, it would have been wrong. Concerning the independence movement, I had nothing whatever to do with it and kept free from it and, as an American, told them that I could have nothing to do with it and could give no advice."

The prosecutor, in demanding sentences of six months' imprisonment and addressing Mr. Mowry before the court, said: "On one side your taking employees and students who had no manifestation of human kindness."

Moffett replied that "we were given no Rev. Mr. Mowry's head and face and he was let off by a policeman. The Rev. Mr. Moffett visited the office of another prosecutor who admitted to him that Mr. Mowry was not notified of his trial until the day before it was held and that he was not asked whether he wanted a lawyer. Mr. Moffett complained that the trial was brought off so suddenly that Mr. Mowry's friends had no chance to engage a lawyer.

The prosecutor told him they could have obtained a postponement and Mr. Moffett replied that "we were given no such information," that he had no opportunity to confer with Mr. Mowry about engaging a lawyer and that in the interview he had had with Mr. Mowry in jail he was strictly forbidden to talk with the prisoner about his case.

The prosecutor told Mr. Moffett that they had a right to appeal but the friend of the convict missionary pointed out that if the appeal were not successful, the Rev. Mr. Mowry would have suffered by reason of the fact that he did not have a lawyer on his first trial.

PLANES SUPPLY FOOD TO ALLIED COMMISSIONERS

LONDON, June 27.—When the allied armistice commission first arrived at Pils, its headquarters in Germany, says the Westminster Gazette, there was not enough food and a wireless S. O. S. was sent to the royal air force for help. A squadron of airplanes was equipped with parachutes each having a ration box attached with bully beef, bread and other foodstuffs. Within 24 hours these were successfully dropped for the delegates.

HUNS PREVENT DANES FROM SHIPPING FOOD

LONDON, June 27. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—While the attention of the allies is concentrated on the Germans along the western front, German government officials in Schleswig are preventing the Danes, who have the consent of the entente, from shipping food to their own needy countrymen in Schleswig.

This information has been received here by Edmund Gosse, well-known English literary critic. "I learned," he said in a letter to the Morning Post, "that the burgomaster of Flensburg declared that the hungry inhabitants of that town, the largest in Schleswig, have no need of Danish food."

The same German official, according to Mr. Gosse's information, has refused passports to any families in the town and district of Flensburg to cross over into Denmark. The offer of Jutland and Pomerania to receive several thousand Danish-speaking Schleswig children, "If Danes in Flensburg, dislike German rule," he puts it, "they may starve."

Mr. Gosse terms as "absurd" the treatment of Schleswig soldiers repatriated through Denmark. "These unhappy men," he said, "are arrested as they cross the frontier, are prevented from even visiting their relatives, and are immediately conveyed to the Polish frontier to swell the German army there. North Schleswig is at the present moment more severely persecuted than it was even through the war. There is proceeding a commandeering of cattle and horses which is paralyzing to the population and this is emphasized by the indifference with which South (or German) Schleswig is being treated."

Schleswig, he understands, is now closed to all persons coming from Denmark. "On the Rhine, under the eye of England and France," Mr. Gosse observed, "the booby may be seen enough, but he shows little change of heart where he escapes from the eye of the victors."

Schleswig, the northern half of Schleswig-Holstein, between the North and Baltic seas, has been a province of Prussia since 1864, when it was wrested from Danish control. Under the peace treaty of Paris the control of certain zones of Schleswig is to be decided by plebiscite.

Lift Corns Off! Doesn't Hurt!

Don't let corns ache twice! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers—Here's magic!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic freezone discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn and instantly that old bothersome corn stops hurting, then shortly you can lift it out, root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin. Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, all hardened calluses on bottom of feet shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. Ladies! Keep freezone handy on your dresser. Wonderful!

PERSHING DEFENDS WORK OF Y. M. C. A. IN FRANCE

PARIS, June 27.—The army has been unreasonable at times in its expectations from the Young Men's Christian association because the "Y" spirit of willingness made the doughy take for granted the association's ability to accomplish results. Gen. Pershing declares in a letter of commendation to E. C. Carter, chief Y. M. C. A. secretary with the American expeditionary force.

"On behalf of the Y. M. C. A. I desire to express to you and to your fellow workers my appreciation and thanks for the splendid services which the Y. M. C. A. has performed for the American army in Europe," Gen. Pershing's letter reads.

"When the first contingents began arriving, the Y. M. C. A. began that work for the American soldiers which has ever kept pace with the growth of the American expeditionary force. All the divisions and most of the smaller organizations have enjoyed its benefits and services. Besides maintaining the usual recreation huts, it conducted canoes where the men could purchase small supplies, and in addition the Y. M. C. A. has constantly distributed, without charge, tobacco, hot drinks and the like at the front."

"Another service of great value has been the creation of and the work in leave areas where the problem of giving the men occasional respites from the routine of army life has been solved. The facts which made this possible have been the recreational facilities in the leave areas, and especially the presence and splendid assistance of the American women with the Y. M. C. A."

"Other branches of your endeavor deserving of special mention are those connected with education, entertainment and athletics. In each of these departments the Y. M. C. A. has done excellent work, but the features which have mentioned do not begin to cover the activities of the association, which has at all times shown itself eager to undertake any extension of its work to meet the wishes and military necessities. This spirit of willingness has resulted in the army's taking for granted the wisdom and the ability of the Y. M. C. A. to do what was asked of it. In fact yours has been the same spirit which has animated the American army and made possible its contribution to the successful conclusion of the war."

"As I cannot address all of your workers personally, I hope that you and they will accept this letter as an expression of my appreciation of the splendid work that you have done in France."

BOHEMIA QUARRELS OVER BIG ESTATES

PRAQUE, June 27. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—There is a heated controversy throughout Bohemia over the question of dividing up the great estate held by the land owning magnates of this section of Czechoslovakia. The greater part of the land in Bohemia is in the hands of these large land owners and there is widespread demand that the estates should be taken over by the state and in some way put in the hands of the poorer classes.

The people are all the more insistent to make recommendations for reform in land owning. The commission now has reported recommending that the great estates should be bought by the state and that no land owners should be allowed to hold more than about 52 acres. The question as to what amount the state should pay these land owners for the land it expropriates in this compulsory fashion has caused serious differences of opinion. All but a few extremists concede that the land should be paid for compensation to the land owners while Premier Masaryk, who has always been identified with the Czech revolutionary interference in behalf of the land owners by legislation.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Multistiffed coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Multistiffed coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.
